Hartmark Leads Gall in Sr Men's DION USSSA Championship

March 14, 2011

by Phillip Gary Smith

When Duluth's Eric Hartmark (photo No. 101) won the inaugural Exeter Marathon (RI) in 2:21 he led by 20 minutes at the line. Imagine the difference of pressure at the front today as he was matched shoe-for-shoe by the one snowshoer best qualified to pounce like a snow tiger if he erred just once: multiyear National Team member, Scott Gall of Iowa. Read More

Women

CO Women Snow Mo at 2011 DION
USSSA Championships

March 13, 2011
by Phillip Gary Smith

Colorado women attacked the hills of Cable Wisconsin's famed snow courses, discovering gold momentum as Brandy Erholtz (top photo), Evergreen, won her second senior women's national title, coupled with Samantha (Sam) Lewis, Boulder, nailing a consecutive junior girl's championship.

Saving the best for last, the USSSA schedule annually alternates the starts of senior men and the senior women classes, and this year it was the women's opportunity to be the highlighted last championship race of the day. Mark Elmore, USSSA Sports Director, called this group "one of the most competitive ever" as all five of the 2010 national team members were in Wisconsin to defend their title. Read More
